Mako Defense Training Terms and Conditions

I, _____, have read and agree to the following terms and conditions:
full name

- 1.) I take full responsibility for my use or misuse of any training that I receive from Mako Defense, The Mako Group, and from any instructors employed by The Mako Group to administer this training.
- 2.) I recognise that safety will be strictly enforced. Any willful or negligent violation of common safety rules or the established safety rules of the course may result in my removal from the course. If I am removed from the course for safety violations, I will receive no refund for any part of the cost of the course.
- 3.) I realize that this is a professional course. I will maintain a professional bearing and a respectful attitude toward the instructors and the course material. I realize that I will be removed from the course without refund of the course costs if I become a distraction to instructors or other students by acting in an unprofessional, disrespectful, or dangerous manner.
- 4.) I will utilize required safety equipment at all times. I agree to supply my own appropriate levels of eye and ear protection.
- 5.) I will use only appropriate firearms in good condition. I will bring the correct firearms to each course. My firearms will be test fired and zeroed prior to use in a course. If my firearm is in disrepair or in a non-functional state, I will not be allowed to fire during the course. I will arrive at the courses with my weapons unloaded and actions open.
- 6.) I will use only new, factory-loaded ammunition in good condition during Mako Defense courses.
- 7.) I understand that tactical training, firearms training, and hand-to-hand combat training, like many other physical activities, include a certain amount of risk. I take full responsibility for any risk incurred in participating in Mako Defense training, and will not hold The Mako Group nor any instructors liable for injury to myself or damage to my property.
- 8.) I will dress appropriately, utilize equipment relevant to the training, and provide my own food and water during the training.
- 9.) I will possess no alcohol at any facility used for Mako Defense courses and will not consume alcohol at any time during the duration of any course, including any day prior to or on which a course is scheduled.
- 9.) I understand that Mako Defense training includes techniques used by some of the most elite military and law enforcement units in the world. This training is intended to increase the skills of military and law enforcement, and to enhance the ability of law-abiding individuals to lawfully defend themselves and their families against violent crime. In order to prevent these techniques from being taught to those who would misuse them, all students attending Mako Defense training will be required to prove their ability to pass a criminal background check. Concealed carry permits from any state, military or law enforcement IDs, armed security credentials, or licenses that require criminal background checks, such as FFLs, explosives licenses, responsible persons lists/employee possessor forms may be used to prove a clean record. Students who do not possess such documentation of a clean record will be required to submit a completed State of Alaska Request for Criminal Justice Information Form and return it with this enrollment form to The Mako Group with a payment of $20.

I understand that any violation of the above terms and conditions may result in my removal from any Mako Defense course without refund of tuition costs.

I certify that I do not have a criminal history. I am not involved in any criminal activity and have never been convicted of a felony or a violent crime. I am not a user of any controlled substance.

I certify that I am in good physical condition and have no physical or mental health issues that will prevent me from safely participating in intense physical activity or that would cause me to be a danger to myself or others. I am not taking any medications that could interfere with my ability to safely use a firearm.
